

Indiana Charters

One hundred one Indiana charter schools were awarded grants from money that came from the federal charter schools program between 2006-2014. At this time, at least 44 (44%) of those charter schools were closed or never opened at all.

All findings were confirmed by checking the list of closed and opened charter schools provided by the State Education Department of Indiana which you can download here. The status of schools not listed were confirmed by searching the NCES number of the school here and then searching the internet for confirmation.

In total, $18,051,564.00 was awarded to Indiana charter schools during those years that either never opened or shut down.

The chart below shows the names of charters schools in Indiana that received federal money between 2006-2014 but are not open today. Those school names that are lightly shaded are grant recipient schools that never opened. Those shaded in maroon are schools that are closed. The federal grant amount is to the right of the school's name.
