

The Etude School

The Etude School (NCES 551365002690) was given a CSP grant, beginning in 2006. I received it over a three-year period and totaled $465,000. It closed in 2011. The file, by the way, is from the CCD. Etude is also on the Wisconsin list of closed schools.

As further evidence, Etude appears in the Wisconsin Yearbook 2009-2010

<https://dpi.wi.gov/sites/default/files/imce/sms/Charter-Schools/2009-10yearbook.pdf>

You will find the address and the description of the school.

However, by the 2011-12 Yearbook, The Etude School is gone from the Yearbook

<https://dpi.wi.gov/sites/default/files/imce/sms/Charter-Schools/2011-12yearbook.pdf>

So what is this "new" school with the same name?

The school known now as "Etude" is actually the revival of a different charter school known as IDEAS and apparently this new school is now in trouble too.

It is not the school that got the grant, it is a school that has the same name.

The Lincoln Inquiry School

Is the charter school that is on the list of CSP grants. It received an award of 2010 to be given over three years--$750,000. The NCES number of the school that got the award is 551668002180.

At some point in time, the charter school became a public school, now called Lincoln Elementary. See the snapshot from NCES below and compare the NCES numbers.

School Details (2017-2018 school year)

There may be a Lincoln Charter school that is open. Lincoln is a popular name. But the charter school that got the grant is not a charter school anymore—it is a public school. (note the lower right hand corner where it says charter NO)

Here are two additional schools that Will admitted were in fact closed in an email to me along with additional information for you: McKinley and Banner.

From Will's email:

McKinley (merged with another Racine school and took new name, I'll concede this one is a bit more iffy).

I will say you appear to be right about Banner (I'm happy to publicly say this). There were 2 Banners in Milwaukee prior to my moving there, and I didn't realize this.

Best,

Will

Frankly, I think that Will and his partner just messed up with the names when it comes to McKinley. There is a McKinley Academy that got a grant, it is open, and we never said it was closed. But a McKinley Middle Charter School that got a small $75,000 grant did close. This is its NCES number-- 551236001631

And this is what you get when you plug it in—which is exactly what you get when a school closes.

The screenshot shows the top navigation bar with the IES NCEES logo and a search box. Below the navigation bar is the "Search for Public Schools" header with the CCD Common Core of Data logo. A blue box contains a note: "NOTE: The inclusion or exclusion of a school in this locator does NOT constitute an endorsement of the school and should NOT be used in any way to infer the accreditation status of the school." Below this is a search results section with the text "Search Results (records: 0)" and links for "Modify Search", "Data Notes/Grant IDs", and "Help". The main content area displays "No results were found from your search." with a magnifying glass icon and the text "Here are some tips to improve your search." followed by a bullet point: "There may be no public schools that fit the search." At the bottom of the main content area are links for "Modify Your Search" and "Start a New Search". Below the main content area is the source text: "Source: CCD Public school data 2017-2018, 2018-2019 school years" and a "Notes:" label.

The Banner that Will “did not realize existed”.... The one that got the grant had this NCEES number:
550960002951

And here is what comes up when you plug it in:

This screenshot is identical to the one above, showing the same search interface with the message "No results were found from your search." and the same source information: "Source: CCD Public school data 2017-2018, 2018-2019 school years" and a "Notes:" label.
